Scripture

SCRIPTURE LESSON—PSALM 119: 1-8 (Read Responsively)

Happy are they whose way is blameless, who follow the teaching of the Lord!

Happy are they who observe your decrees and seek you with all their hearts, who never do any wrong, but always walk in your ways.

You laid down your commandments, that we should fully keep them.

Oh, that my ways were made so direct that I might keep your statutes!

Then I should not be put to shame, when I regard all your commandments.

I will thank you with a true heart, when I have learned your righteous judgments.

I will keep your statutes; do not utterly forsake me.

HOLY GOSPEL—MATTHEW 5: 21-37

[Jesus said to the disciples:] “You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not murder’; and ‘whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.’ But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgment; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, ‘You fool,’ you will be liable to the hell of fire. So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. Truly I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny. You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell. It was also said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’ But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.’ But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let your word be ‘Yes, Yes’ or ‘No, No’; anything more than this comes from the evil one.

Music Ministry

Music Notes from Tom Paulson:

These are difficult times. We are a divided nation; no one seems to be able to bring us together, and the process seems to be making things worse. The deadly corona-virus is spreading, seemingly unchecked, North Korea and Iran are developing nuclear weapons, there were record warm temps in Antarctica this week, etc. I could go on, but you get the point. All this makes our gospel from Matthew more poignant and relevant today. Jesus, seemingly in a frustrated rant, tells his followers to work at their relationships with each other. We all need to participate in making a beautiful city, in creating a better world, to bring forth the kingdom of God.

Apparently, we are not the first people to live in difficult times (i.e., consider what our ancestors lived through in WWII) or to take these words of Jesus to heart. This hymn was written shortly after WWII and seems to reflect that time in history. May it be our prayer today and all difficult times.

"O God of every nation, of every race and land, Redeem the whole creation with your almighty hand. Where hate and fear divide us and bitter threats are hurled. In love and mercy guide us and heal our strife-torn world."

We sing it to an iconic Welsh hymn tune. Llangloffan is so identifiably Welsh that in the Netflix TV series, The Crown, when Queen Elizabeth visits a small mining village to bury the 100's of dead following a mining disaster, the villagers sing it organically and unprompted.

MANY THANKS to Karen Brown and Andi Hopf for their solos this weekend!
